

STUDY/DISCUSSION QUESTIONS: RELIGION

Wisdom Without Answers

1-What are the three possible candidates for evidence of the existence of God given in the reading?

2-How are each of these candidates shown to be possible, but still problematic, for verifying God's existence?

3-Which of the candidates do you find to be the most plausible.....explain why it is the best of the three.

4-What evidence is offered in the reading against the existence of God? How effective do you find this evidence to be?

5-In the chapter, "Cosmos," what is the understanding and explanation of "nothingness?" Can we make sense of "nothingness?"

6-What is unsatisfactory about both the answers of, "God" or "The Big Bang," in reference to the question: How did we get the universe?
